

Audio Systems of the Rich & Famous

Louis "Satchmo" Armstrong (trumpeter)

- Dual model 1019 turntable
- Tandberg 6X reel-to-reel tape deck (2)
- Marantz 10-B FM Tuner
- Marantz Stereo Console preamplifier
- Marantz 240 amplifier
- Acoustic Research 3A speakers

Leonard Bernstein (conductor, composer)

- In penthouse work area: 4 channel Fisher system

Aaron Copeland (composer)

- FM Tuner
- turntable with 16" Audac arm & cartridge
- Ampex 600 tape recorder
- Musician's Amplifier
- Altec 604 infinite baffle speakers

John F. Kennedy (U.S. president)

- In White House: Fisher system

Paul Shaffer (band leader)

- Sequerra FM tuner
- VPI turntable
- Sony SACD player
- Pass Labs pre amp (?)
- Pass Labs monoblock amplifiers
- Eggleston Works speakers

Frank Sinatra (singer)

- Clairtone Arizona G console stereo

Isaac Stern (violinist)

- Audio Research tube electronics
- Magnaplaner speakers

Arturo Toscanini (conductor)

- Tape Library in basement:
 - RCA 16" Transcription turntable, then
 - Jerry Minter 16" Transcription turntable
 - early Westrex disc cutting lathe
 - Pultec pre amp (custom made for AT)
 - Musician's Amplifier (Nov. 1949 by David Sarser)
 - Altec 604 and Olson LC-1A speakers
- Main Hall:
 - Altec Voice of the Theater (furniture finish)

Herbert Von Karajan (conductor) -